The property is zoned for blue ribbon schools and within easy access of dining, shopping, and entertainment. All this within 45 min to DC, 30-minutes to Baltimore and 15-minutes to Columbia.

The expansive, gorgeous farmhouse reflects rustic authenticity in an atmosphere of refined living. The home is an entertainer's delight, with a large open-concept kitchen and floor plan that centers around the home's showpiece mid-19th century log cabin "heart." Take in the seasons from the expansive front porch and watch your horses graze, backlit by stunning sunrises and sunsets. Set back from the road, and buffered by an idyllic meandering stream and riparian habitat, the home and farm offer a refuge of beauty and peace for both horse and human.

The discerning equestrian enthusiast will enjoy a 2013 Mennonite-built 5-stall center-aisle carriage barn with heated, custom-built tack room, hot/cold wash rack, large hay loft, rubber bone-paver aisle, and farm-grade, ceiling-mounted fans in each stall. Three-board fenced pastures are optimized for all-season sustainability with upgraded heavy-use areas and heated automatic waterers. A state-of-the-art, all-weather, 100â€™ x 150' laser-graded riding arena with a bluestone base topped by premium rubber/sand arena footing and a bridle path allows for versatile and year-round schooling. A 40' x 60" pole barn with water and electric offers versatile options for leisure or business. Surrounded by renowned competition venues, world-class clinicians and trainers, and thriving local US Pony Clubs, this estate offers it all.
